P R E S I D E N T - G I N N Y B U C K A L E W

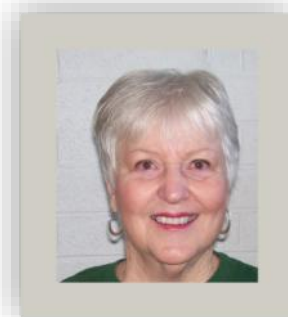

Dear Members and Friends,

Things are heating up for the Primary election in July and each of us needs to really check out the candidates and vote for the one who we feel will best serve our state and community. After the Primary we will get behind whoever the Republican is and support him or her all the way to the election in November.

The Democrats are up to their dirty tricks, as usual! The local paper has let us know about all of the schemes they have up their sleeves to turn our state and county blue. We cannot let this happen! Remember—the absolute most important thing we can do is to get out the vote—and of course pray for our country, state and local leaders. We cannot let them win by default because of low Republican turn out. As I have told you before—at the last mid-term election, only about 33% of registered Republicans voted. That is a disgrace! Talk to everyone you know and get them to the polls. If you or any of your friends or family get a mail in ballot, take it to the polling place. Do not put it in the mail. As we were instructed by Cil Jennings at the last meeting, don't just drop it off. Go through the line and have it verified with your identification to insure that it is counted.

We have some fun things planned for the next couple of meetings to help celebrate our 250th birthday. Be sure to come and of course—invite your friends. See you all in June!

CAMPERVILLE

SPOTLIGHT MEMBER — LISA WOOD

Well hello there, fellow conservative Republicans of the LBRW group! Thank you for letting me share a bit about myself.

My name is Lisa Wood and I'm originally from Syracuse, New York. Our family headed west when I was young - first stopping in Las Vegas, Nevada, where the newest casino at the time was the Union Plaza. (Yes, it was many moons ago). We later moved to San Diego, California, where I grew up and went to school. After graduation, I had the opportunity to live in London, England for about a year. I also visited many other areas of England. At age 23, I applied and was accepted to the California Highway Patrol

Academy in Sacramento. Those six months were some of the toughest of my life! Upon graduation, I spent the next 30 years as a CHP Officer patrolling highways and unincorporated areas across California. During Governor Arnold Schwarzenegger's time in office, I had the honor of serving on his security detail in Sacramento and Los Angeles, which also included protecting Maria Shriver and their four children. That role gave me incredible experiences and plenty of opportunities to travel. I've always loved seeing the world. Highlights include a Spanish language immersion program where I lived with a family in Costa Rica, scuba diving in the Galapagos Islands, and flying in a small plane over the Nazca Lines in Southern Peru for several years. In 2016, I was blessed to marry the most amazing man - my best friend, Ken Wood. I retired from the CHP in August 2019, and Ken retired in June 2020 after a 40 year career in commercial fire protection. Since then, we've spent our time traveling this beautiful country in our 5th wheel, especially enjoying visits to red states where we can be free. We are accompanied by my parents in their 5th wheel on many of these journeys. We're also big NASCAR fans and have had season tickets to Phoenix Raceway for years (that's actually where Ken proposed - now that's a fun story!)

Although I proudly served the state of California for 30 years, we knew it was time for a change. We're so thankful to now call this wonderful, conservative city of Lake Havasu our home, where we can surround ourselves with like-minded folks. I'm truly looking forward to getting to know all of you.

Council Corner by David Diaz, Vice Mayor

The following is a brief recap of current events/situations involving your City Council.

Second Bridge. Arizona State Parks Department was telling us they need more time to formally convey their property to the City, which is needed for the construction of the second bridge. The most recent communication was delaying us six to eight months until the process would be completed. This was problematic because it was pushing our start date into the first quarter of 2027, instead of October of this year, as originally hoped. I facilitated a Zoom meeting with the assistance of State Representative Leo Biasiucci. We will be ready as originally communicated. The Zoom meeting included State Parks, State Land and the Coast Guard. As well as Mayor Cal, City Manager, LHC Public Works Director, Representative Biasiucci and myself. We are back on track with the original time frame.

Paradyne Flats. This development includes 68 townhouse units located on the corner of Smoketree Ave. and Swanson Ave. An application was received for a Rezone/Planned Development for:

- Removal of side and rear yard setbacks for individual units

Reduction of the required 20% landscaping to 15% for ground cover. "Trees and shrub requirement will be met."

We do not have an exact timeframe for when this application will go before the Planning and Zoning Commission and the City Council, but it tentatively looks like P&Z on 5/20 and City Council on 6/23.

Multi-Family on Kearsage. A 48-unit apartment complex is being proposed at 3548/3552 Kearsage Dr. and 3560 Outpost Dr. The development includes (4) 3-story buildings. A preapplication meeting was held with the developer and no immediate significant issues were identified. This development does not require Council action.

Multi-Family on Inlet. A 40-unit apartment complex is being proposed at 70 Inlet Dr. This development includes (22) single story buildings. A preapplication meeting was held with the developer and no immediate significant issues were identified. This development does not require Council action.

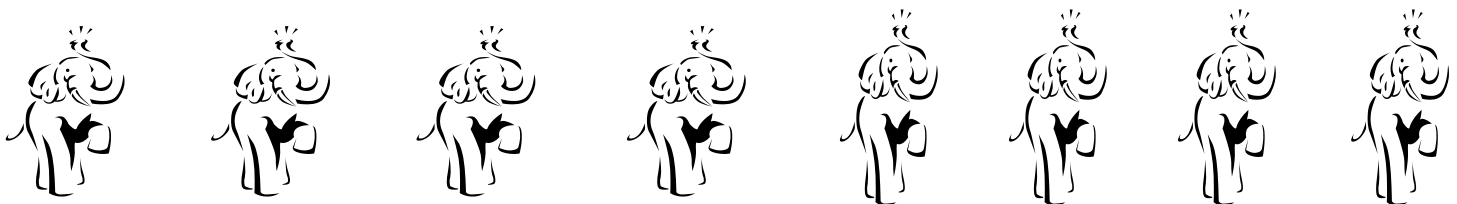

General Plan Update. There are a few key dates to keep in mind as the process progresses. Adoption timeframes:

- The first introduction to the Planning and Zoning Commission was on May 6th at LHUSD board room. (Informational)
- The second introduction to the Planning and Zoning commission is on May 20th City at the City Council Chambers (Recommendation)

The City Council will consider adoption of the General Plan on June 9th

The LHC City Council is always here to serve the needs of our community. Please feel free to reach out at anytime for information or clarification on any issues/concerns.

Regards,
David V. Diaz
Vice Mayor

Today's Democrat party has learned from experts how to promote propaganda.

Consider what happened in the 1980s as AIDS became a global health crisis.

Seeking to focus blame on the U.S. for the breakout, the Soviet Union portrayed AIDS as a biological weapon that the Americans had developed. The false claim was taken up by media sources, triggering various conspiracy theories about U.S. involvement. The Soviets' campaign sought to promote anti-American sentiment, triggering fear and distrust of the U.S.

It would take several years for the truth to emerge that AIDS originated not as a biological weapon in a U.S. lab but from the Human Immunodeficiency Virus, transmitted to humans through the consumption of infected primate meat. But by the time the truth emerged, many in the Third World had heard and accepted the Soviet version.

We see a similar propagandist approach taken by Democrats today to promote inaccuracies with an anti-Republican Party spin.

Democrats have received some help from the left-leaning New York Times. That publication made the claim that, under President Donald Trump, we are now losing our democracy. Its editorial board compiled a list of twelve indicators of alleged democratic erosion. However, if these were applied to the prior administration of President Joe Biden, we can see the publication apparently had no concerns that he had met many of the same indicators. As such, it suggests the NYT list was created only as a propagandizing tool to feed an anti-Trump sentiment.

Ironically, of the twelve listed points the NYT identified about Trump but not about Biden include the following:

- "Stifles dissent and speech"—but the NYT ignored the fact that courts have determined the Biden administration had coordinated efforts to influence social-media moderation during the COVID pandemic.
- "Persecutes political opponents"—but the NYT ignored Biden's prosecutions of former pro-Trump people, such as advisors Steve Bannon, Peter Navarro, and General Michael Flynn.
- "Bypasses the legislature"—but the NYT ignored Biden's claim that a 28th Amendment (the dubiously-named Equal Rights Amendment) now exists despite the timeline Congress set for its passage having already expired.
- "Uses power for personal profit"—but the NYT ignored Biden family members who were found to have profited from foreign sources in the amount of $10 million.
- "Defies the courts"—but the NYT ignored numerous accusations against Biden for "circumventing the courts" in several high-profile policy areas, including student loan relief, race-conscious college admissions, etc.

In a recent speech to followers, former Vice President Kamala Harris jumped on the "we are losing our democracy" bandwagon by criticizing Trump's actions. Interestingly, she included his decisions made concerning the war with Iran. Keep in mind that during her presidential campaign, she readily admitted Iran posed a significant threat to the U.S., noting that all options were on the table. However, she now criticizes the president, adding in a losing our democracy sound bite whenever possible.

What is interesting, however, is that Harris still fails to recognize how she personally was involved in a clear example of a failure of democracy during her watch. That failure resulted in her selection—by the Democrat party leadership and not the voters—as to who would replace Biden as he stepped down from the presidential ballot. Democracy turned its head to launch her presidential campaign, making her the only known beneficiary in American history of such a failure. Yet she now leads the list of possible 2028 Democrat presidential candidates, while lecturing us about Trump endangering our democracy.

Democrats are promoting propaganda in their fight against the SAVE America Act, a bill that Republicans have backed to ensure only U.S. citizens vote in our federal elections. Although this is already the law of the land, it's not followed, and the new proposals would add a layer of documentation to verify citizenship—an addition Democrats oppose, claiming it seeks to make it harder for married women to vote.

Rep. Hillary Scholten (D-Mich) claims the act would result in married women being unable to vote unless they change their birth certificate to match other government-issued identification. This is totally incorrect, as even the law of her own state requires that birth certificates can only be changed if an error exists. There is no basis for changing it if a woman gets married, thus making Scholten's claim of making it harder for women to vote false. Married women can, in fact, still obtain IDs quite easily.

Also adding to the Democrats' propaganda campaign is the party's nominee in the upcoming Texas Senate race involving Rep. James Talarico (D-TX). Seeking to inflame voters that the wealthy avoid having to pay taxes, he claimed Elon Musk paid none, leaving young people to foot the tax bill. Musk posted that this year alone, he will pay over $11 billion in taxes.

The Soviet propaganda machine was highly successful during the Cold War. In November, we will learn whether the Democrats' propaganda machine works at the same level.

James Zumwalt is a retired Marine infantry officer who served in the Vietnam War, Panama, and Operation Desert Storm. He is the author of three books and hundreds of opinion pieces in online and print publications. He speaks frequently on foreign policy and defense issues as well as on the leadership of his famous father, after whom the world's first stealth destroyer is named.

The climate scam is fueled by stupidity more than fraud. by Bill Ponton | May 18, 2026

If one sifts through all the workings of the climate hoax with its Green New Deal and Net Zero Schema, one will find fraud, but what is really fueling it is an immense amount of stupidity and hubris.

Let me hit you with a scene from the movie adaptation of Michael Lewis's book on the subprime mortgage crisis, The Big Short. Trust me, it will help crystallize what I am trying to convey about the climate hoax and clean energy scam.

First some context: in the movie, hedge fund manager, Mark Baum (Steve Carell) has purchased credit default swaps from derivatives trader, Jared Vennett (Ryan Gosling) as a short against $1 billion in subprime mortgage-backed securities. The scene opens with Vennett being yelled at and peppered with questions from Baum's associate, Vinny Daniel (Jeremy Strong). Jared is asked to explain why the price of bonds comprised of subprime mortgages has risen while subprime mortgage defaults have risen. I'll start there.

Vinny: Mortgage defaults are way up. Yet you quote us a higher price on the bonds. Tell me why we shouldn't pull out of this trade right now?

Jared: Listen, I told you when we did this deal the ratings agencies, the SEC and the big banks are clueless. So now their foot's on fire and they think their steak is done and you're surprised?

Mark: This isn't stupidity, this is fraud.

Jared: Hey, if you can tell me the difference between stupid and illegal I'll have my wife's brother arrested.

I just don't think you guys realize how clueless the system is.

Yeah, there's shady shit happening but trust me, it's all fueled by stupidity. Face it, as cynical as you all are I think you still have a shred of respect left for the powers that be.

Vinny: Not me.

Jared: Okay, except Vinny.

So, this is my point. If one sifts through all the workings of the climate hoax with its Green New Deal and Net Zero Schema, one will find fraud, but what is really fueling it is an immense amount of stupidity and hubris. Just as the banks with their subprime valuation models pushed the banking system to ruin, so too, the IPCC with its dubious climate models is driving the world toward impoverishment.

Riley Riley Riley

It is with great sadness that I must tell you that our Riley got kidney disease and had to be put down on May 8. He only showed signs of not feeling well for a few weeks. Many of you have been to my house and had the pleasure of getting affection and kisses from this extremely sweet little pup. And many of you got to see him on center stage at Grace Arts Live Theatre, as he had star parts in Wizard of Oz, Annie and the Follies. He loved everybody and everybody loved him. He was the joy of my life, the substitute grandchild I never had. He was just shy of his 14th birthday so I have many wonderful memories. But needless to say I am broken hearted. When you see me, just give me a hug. No words please.
