PRESIDENT - LAJUANA GILLETTE

How time flies! Here it is the end of 2023 and the end of my term as President of LBRW. I'll still be attending the meetings, just no longer "in charge".

We have been through a lot together: COVID 19, Zoom meetings, rumored heart attack, black eye, (you know the fight at the X) blindness and the theft of the 2020 and 2022 elections, which left us all reeling.

The world is a much more dangerous place than it was in 2019 when President Trump was in office. We can thank Biden and his people for the fact that our borders are no longer secure. Our streets are no longer safe, and our groceries and gas prices are much more expensive. Our enemies are gathering at the gate, and many are within our country just waiting for the word to strike. Our children are not being taught to be Americans and porn is in our schools. All of this is on Biden.

We need to make sure that our next US President is a strong American. One who believes in us. And that person is President Donald J Trump!

God bless America, and God bless you all,
LaJuana Gillette , President 2023

Speaker: Rae Chornenky: Past President pf AzFRW and NFRW. will install the officers and then speak from the heart about the future of the Republican Party.

GINNY BUCKALEW CORRESPONDING SECRETARY

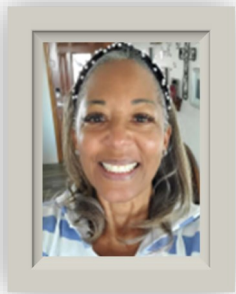

Happy Thanksgiving! It is hard to believe that 2024 is just around the corner! I sent 2 cards this past month. One to Loretta Erwin as she continues with Chemotherapy. We want her to know that we keep her in our thoughts and prayers. I also sent a card to Diane Klostermier and her family in the loss of her dear husband Ace. Diane was the catalyst in the founding of our PACE program in our local schools. Our hearts go out the the whole family. She has been such a wonderful support for our club and the Republican party for so many years. I don’t plan on sending myself a card but I will be getting a total knee replacement tomorrow. Hopefully it will go as great as the last one did three years ago! Please remember to let me know of anyone needing a note or card from us. Just send me a text or give me a call. See you next month at our LBRW Christmas Party and installation of 2024-2025 officers.

Being an active senior, I love boating on the lake, golf and off roading in our can am or bronco with my husband Greg (who just retired from managing an off-road racing team with 31 wins!)

SPOTLIGHT MEMBER VICKI CORCORAN

Graduated from El Cajon Valley High School 1979. In school I've been an all-around athlete including but not limited to Softball, swimming, track & field, field hockey. I'm in the Hall of Fame in San Diego for throwing discus. I competed in the 2019 San Diego senior Olympics and won three gold medals and one bronze for swimming and one gold medal for throwing discus. Now that I'm older specifically just golf.

I've been a CPA for over 20 years and an Accountant/Controller for over 35 years. I worked for The Corky McMillin Companies for 24 years. Their companies consisted of home building, commercial, real estate, mortgage and escrow. The family had built over 3,000 homes, several commercial buildings including the renovation of Point Loma Naval Station now called Liberty Station.

Currently I am the CPA/Controller for Oakwood Escrow companies and have been with them for 8 years. Love my job.

I joined the LBRW club to get involved in Republican politics during the 2022 election. As the newly elected 2nd Vice President, I am looking forward to the 2024 fundraiser!

Very Important Reminder

If you took one or more cards for the "Forgotten Seniors" for the Salvation Army, it is VERY IMPORTANT that you bring the gift bag with your presents and card to the Dec. 4th meeting.

For some, this might be the only gift they get, your so thoughtfulness and participation in this "act of kindness" program makes you special.

So, DON'T FORGET.

Don't recoil from the darkness of the world By Michael Ryan

History has tides all its own that seem, like the ocean's, to lap at our feet, utterly uncontrolled by human-kind. War. Revolution. Tyranny. Acrimony. Out-of-control animus. Hatred and conflict, unleashed with great force. At times, whole nations can be pulled under, taking untold innocent lives with them.

This is such a time.

Suddenly, the world has darkened manifestly. Rarely has the exhortation to light a candle rather than curse the darkness been more urgent.

Savagery and terrorism are back with a vengeance — their supporters only having multiplied inexplicably — and civilization is forced to fight back just to survive.

Nothing seems to be beneath the terrorists and tyrants, except a chilling trail of cooled blood and fractured lives. But a greater danger is the ignorance, distractions, comfort, and complacency of the masses, fed fat by the dishonest, corrupt, and complicit media.

For even in the land of the Bill of Rights and the First Amendment, of all places:

A man is headed to jail for speech — satire, no less — because it is disfavored by the powerful.

Another man's home is raided by a menacing SWAT team for having protected his son — taken from his family in handcuffs, likely because he was on the "wrong" side of the abortion debate.

Americans who hold unfashionable views, and who dare to direct pointed questions at the nation's imperious leaders, are silenced by a cynical government and a complicit social media.

A high school football coach is fired for praying silently — in his head! — in a public place.

Federal employees face possible firing and teachers are threatened with their careers for "misgendering" students.

Liquor stores are deemed "essential" during a pandemic lockdown, but a pastor is arrested for holding a church service.

What to do, when inhumanity and blood are flowing as human freedom is ebbing?

Simply: Act.

Retreat from the world is not an option. As the philosopher John Stuart Mill counseled us:

Let not anyone pacify his conscience by the delusion that he can do no harm if he takes no part, and forms no opinion. Bad men need nothing more to compass their ends, than that good men should look on and do nothing.

Yet I have acquaintances, as I suspect you do, who take no part, form no opinion — political agnostics who view disinterest and detachment, even in matters of great moral gravity, as an airily superior posture to those of us fighting it out in the trenches.

When the world dims, it is most crucial for us all to heed the honored axiom that it's better to light a single candle than to curse the darkness — or to just ignore it. Together, our solitary candles fashion day out of night.

Lighting your candle means pouring yourself into service to others, into your community — joining or forming organizations that advance the causes in your heart, making a modest difference one step, one fellow human being at a time. Second Corinthians 2:14-15 alludes to spreading the fragrance of Christ among the people. Indeed.

Amid such evil as now surrounds us, good men and women must take part in lighting the darkness however they can.

Upon the Nov. 12 start of Diwali, the Hindu festival of lights celebrating "the triumph of light over darkness, knowledge over ignorance, and good over evil," this most timely invocation was given at a Kansas City-area Rotary meeting by Dr. Hemender Singh Vats:

Let's pray for that voice of reason that resonates through the acrimonious political cacophony

Let's pray for the power of human connection that can cut through the layers of distrust

Let's pray for the lives of the innocent who are caught in the web of wars thrust on them

Let's pray for food security and a safe home for every human

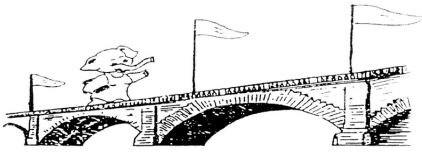

Let's pray for the health of all around you

And above all let's pray to God to rekindle in us the light of love we all have within us and the desire and power to make our world a better place.

We don't necessarily have to be of the world to be in it. But we need to be in it now more than ever.

Rather than withdraw from the enveloping darkness, it is incumbent on us to light it.
