Happy MAGA Year!

We've made it thus far and are already seeing the Left work to sabotage President Trump's reign as 47th President of the United State. I'm confident he is wise to their schemes and ready to "Hit the ground running" on January 21st, the first full day of his second term in office.

Mohave County received national attention as the 'County that worked hard to get out the vote'. We can all be proud of our part in the election process and our County/District officers made great strides in reaching voters with the message on how to vote constitutionally (is that even a word, it is now!).

We have a few members that will be attending the inauguration of President Trump and I look forward to hearing from them. They have been asked to share with us at the February 3rd dinner meeting.

Soon to end, the crazy lies of Joe Biden (as president, that is) such as his farewell speech, that to be correct would be the opposite of everything he said. He basically reported what happened in Trump's first term, not his own. We all know that but sadly, there are millions of people in this country that see HIM as the normal good president and believe every word he says. I'm concerned the false message he is sending to citizens about Trump's presidency. I don't think there was ever a president that worked so hard to turn the country against the yet to be inaugurated president. At least, not in my lifetime.

But let us look forward with hope on the next four, noteworthy years. Let's continue to be informed and help others to do the same. Our Membership Chair Stefanie always has interesting contests with prizes to members bringing the most guests and for the guests that join our team. This will benefit them and the people around them, just as it has all our current members. Remember, to continue receiving dinner invite emails, the newsletter and to stay current on events, you must have renewed your membership for 2025 by the deadline, February 28th to stay in good standing with LBRW, AzFRW and the national organization NFRW.

Membership is still $40 for voting members, $20 for Associate members (husbands or women that are voting members of another club) and Patron membership is $100. With that support you receive a special Patron badge, special mention in the newsletters and a one year business card ad, which appears in the monthly newsletter. In addition to your regular membership you can add a business card ad for just $25.

Let's stay focused on the future of our country and join together as Republicans and Americans to keep the momentum going, we are better together.

"United we stand, divided we fall."

 SECRETARY

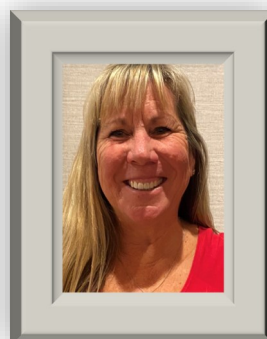

I hope you are all staying healthy and warm as we make our way through winter. The days are getting longer and we have so much going on. Ground Hog Day, AZFRW convention in Tempe, Valentine's Day, Presidents' Day and of course the Lincoln Day Dinner. I am looking forward to our meeting where we will hear Nancy Campbell speak about the future of LHC and the Rose family tell us all about their trip to Washington for the inauguration.

Please let me know of LBRW members that have been ill or have had a hardship and I will send them a card from the club. I have sent out birthday cards. Also sent were a sympathy card to Rhonda Buuck for the loss of her father-in-law, get well cards to Ginny Buckalew and Diane Huenerbein who are both recovering from surgeries. I look forward to seeing you at the dinner meeting.

Bitter Kamala refuses to give J.D. Vance and his young family a tour of the vice presidential residence

Kamala, classless as ever, is refusing to give the incoming vice president, J.D. Vance and his young family, a courtesy tour of the Naval Observatory, which serves as the vice presidential residence. She even could have proudly shown him all the renovations she had done.

In November, Usha Vance, via intermediaries, reached out to staff for the home's current occupants, Harris and Second Gentleman Doug Emhoff, seeking details including what they would need to childproof it. Ewan, Vivek and Mirabel Vance are all under the age of eight.

The questions were initially rebuffed by a Harris political appointee.

So here we are, and the CBS report says that Navy briefers are telling the young family what the place looks like. They'll find out if they were right when they move into the residence unawares. Coming in with young kids, lucky them.

If she wanted to classily decline to tour the residence with the Vances, either for real reasons or with a minor white lie, she could have said she was tending to fire matters back home in Brentwood and dispatched someone else to give the tour. Everyone would understand, and offer sympathy with that.

But she didn't want to do that.

She just wanted to decline. To a man with a young family. That tells us a lot about her.

Let's hope this puts an end to her remaining political career and she can go down with Gavin Newsom. What a crummy way to exit the vice presidential office.

All in the family

By Silvio Canto, Jr.

It was quite a political day, and I don't mean President Trump outlining all those executive orders coming. It was "banana republic day," and lots of family members got pardoned. What for? What crime did they commit? I don't know, but they got pardoned before a jury got to hear the evidence. Nice work if you can find it, to paraphrase my late father.

President Biden pardoned his siblings just minutes before leaving office on Monday.

The pardon applies to James Biden, Sara Jones Biden, Valerie Biden Owens, John Owens, and Francis Biden, the White House announced. The president argues that his family could be subject to "politically motivated investigations" after he leaves office.

"I believe in the rule of law, and I am optimistic that the strength of our legal institutions will ultimately prevail over politics. But baseless and politically motivated investigations wreak havoc on the lives, safety, and financial security of targeted individuals and their families," Biden said in a statement.

Biden issued another wave of pre-emptive pardons earlier Monday morning, those going to Dr. Anthony Fauci, Gen. Mark Milley and people associated with the House select committee investigation into January 6.

He said that he believes in the rule of law? Funny way of showing that.

The impact of these last-minute pardons will stain the Biden record like nothing else.

First, it will be a cloud over these family members even if they didn't break the law. People will always ask: Why did he pardon you if you did nothing wrong? That's a bad cloud to live under for the rest of your life.

Second, it devalues the pardon powers. What Founding Father had this in mind when they debated pardons a long time ago? It's disrespectful even if it's totally legal for the president to issue a pardon.

So goodbye President Biden. Enjoy the rest of your life. I wonder what your next family gathering will be like?

We thought that we'd remember President Biden for inflation and a chaotic border. As Steven Hayward posted today:

"Proof that Joe Biden really liked inflation is how he hyper-inflated the pardon power, which the founders intended for rare cases of misjudgment."

Hyperinflating the pardon powers? It's his legacy along with the price of eggs etc.
